2.5 Income and Property

- (a) The income and property of the Federation must be applied solely towards the objects.
- (b) Subject to clause 2.5 (c) the members are not entitled to any part of the income or property of the Federation.
- (c) A commercially reasonable payment to a member society or individual of a member society for services provided to the Federation is not prohibited.

2.6 Trustees

- (a) If the Federation at any time acquires any immovable property, such property shall be vested in trustee's subject to a declaration of trust.
- (b) The trustees of the Federation shall:
 - (i) Not be more than four and not less than two in number.
 - (ii) Be elected at a General Meeting.
 - (iii) Not effect any sale or mortgage of property without the prior approval of the Council.
- (b) The office of the trustee shall be vacated:
 - (i) If the trustee dies or is physically or mentally unable to perform the office.
 - (ii) If the trustee is guilty of misconduct of such a kind as to render it undesirable that he continues as a trustee.
 - (iii) If the trustee submits notice of resignation from trusteeship.
- (c) Notice of any proposal to remove a trustee from his trusteeship or to appoint a new trustee to fill a vacancy must be given to the Council at least two weeks before the General Meeting at which the proposal is to be discussed. The result of such Meeting shall then be notified to the Registrar of Societies.
- (d) The address of each immovable property, name of each trustee and any subsequent change must be notified to the Registrar of Societies.

2.7 Dissolution

- (a) The Federation shall not be dissolved except with the consent of not less than two-thirds of the Council expressed in person at a General Meeting convened for the purpose.

- (b) Notice of dissolution will be given within three weeks of the dissolution to the Registrar of Societies.
- (c) No member society or individual is entitled to participate in the property of the Federation (if any) available for distribution on a winding-up.
- (d) The property of the Federation (if any) remaining for distribution on a winding-up must be distributed to a non-profit organisation;
 - (i) having objects similar to the objects stated in clause 2.3;
 - (i) whose constituent documents prohibit its members from receiving its income or property; and

- (c) signed by the intended society President, and proposed and seconded in writing by two voting delegates. In the instance of an individual applying for associate membership then the application is signed by that individual and supported by a proposer and seconder from the applicants Professional Society or from two members of member Societies of the Federation
- (d) delivered to the Secretary General at least 3 months before the next General meeting; and

- (e) accompanied by any application fee determined by the executive from time to time.

3.4 Consideration

- (a) The Secretary-General will submit each application to the executive committee for their consideration.
- (b) The executive will consider each application and may endorse or not endorse an application in their discretion without giving reasons.

3.5 Acceptance

- (a) Each application endorsed by the executive committee will be submitted to the delegates of the member societies at the next council meeting.
- (b) The voting delegates may, by resolution at the council meeting, accept an application.
- (c) An application not accepted is deemed to have been rejected.

3.6 Admission

Upon the acceptance of an application, the Secretary-General will:

- (a) notify the proposed member society, or individual in the case of Associate membership of the acceptance; and
- (b) enter that society or associate members name in the Register of Members.

If admitted, an applicant must undertake to abide by the present constitution and any future amendment(s) to the Constitution.

3.7 Responsibilities

- (a) Publish or otherwise disseminate to all their members the Federation calls for papers, new releases, conference notices, etc.

- (b) Supply the Federation with advance information on their own meetings and activities.
- (c) Inform the Federation of changes of executive committee personnel, membership increase and changes of the Constitution and the By-Laws, etc.
- (d) Keep the Federation updated of names and email addresses of the members of the Societies Executive.

3.8 Privileges and Rights

- (a) Access to the Federation media for purposes of coverage of their own news, etc.
- (b) Access to the Federation Member listings.
- (c) Permission to indicate the affiliation on their stationery or elsewhere.
- (d) Representation of Delegates' Council of the Federation as provided by the Constitution.
- (e) Ability to offer their members reduced rates of subscription to the Federation Journal and publications.
- (f) Other privileges and rights that may be determined by the Council.

3.9 Fees

- (a) Each member society is liable to pay such fees as may be determined by the executive committee from time to time.
- (b) The voting delegates may, by resolution in general meeting, vary or revoke any fees determined by the executive committee.

3.10 Cessation

- (a) A member society ceases to be a member, if the member society:
 - (i) Is formally wound up and is no longer in existence as a Society;
 - (ii) fails to pay any fee payable under this constitution and that amount remains unpaid for more than 3 years;
 - (iii) is expelled as a member society pursuant to the provision of clause 3.12; or

- (iv) resigns as a member society by giving notice in writing to the Secretary General at least three months before the next council meeting
- (b) Upon a member society ceasing to be a member of the Federation, the member's rights and privileges cease.

3.11 Transferability

The rights and privileges of a member society cannot be transferred to any person or entity.

3.12 Expulsion

- (a) The voting delegates or executive committee may expel a member society if a member:
 - (i) breaches any provision of this constitution binding on the member; or
 - (ii) engages in any conduct which, in the reasonable opinion of the executive committee, is unbecoming of a member or which is prejudicial or adverse to the interest of the Federation.
- (b) The voting delegates can only expel a member society by a resolution passed by a two-thirds majority of voting delegates at a council meeting.
- (c) The voting delegates cannot expel a member unless they:
 - (i) give the member society not less than 30 days' written notice of their intention to propose a resolution; and
 - (ii) allow the member society to present reasons why they should not be expelled either by:
 - (A) addressing the council for a period not exceeding 30 minutes at or before the date of the meeting provided that the member society must give the executive not less than 7 days' notice before the meeting of their intention to exercise their rights; or
 - (B) submitting written reasons not exceeding 1,000 words not less than 7 days before the meeting.

4. GENERAL MEETINGS

4.1 Annual General Meetings

- (a) The Council will meet once a year at a place and time decided by the executive committee; otherwise known as the Annual General Meeting.
- (b) In the year of the congress, the Annual General Meeting will be held at the time and place of the Federation's Congress.
- (c) The Annual General Meeting shall be held within 4 months from the close of its financial year.
- (d) At least three months' notice shall be given of an Annual General Meeting
- (e) The following points will be considered at the Annual General Meeting:
 - a. The previous financial year's accounts and annual report of the Executive committee.
 - b. Where applicable, the nomination of committee chairpersons or co-opted members.
 - c. Where applicable (once every three years), the election of office-bearers.
 - d. In the event that the Council needs to meet more than once a year, the executive committee member may, at any time, and the Secretary-General must on the requisition of an executive committee member, convene an additional meeting of the council.
- (f) Issues arising at a meeting of Council will be decided by a majority of votes of council members present and voting on any such decision will for all purposes be deemed a decision of the council members.
- (g) The executive committee will cause a record to be kept of any resolution made.
- (h) However, the council may meet either in person or by telephone or any other form of instantaneous communication for the despatch of business if the need arises
- (i) If:
 - (i) the council confer by radio, telephone, closed circuit television or other means of communication;
 - (ii) all the council members who for the time being are entitled to receive notice of a meeting of the council receive (or waive) notice of the conference and have access to the means by which the conference is to take place;

- (iii) each of the council members taking part in the conference acknowledges they are able to hear each of the other council taking part in the conference: and
- (iv) the number of council members taking part in the conference is not less than a quorum. (see 4.4)

then all the provisions in this constitution relating to meetings of the council will apply to the conference as if that conference were a meeting of the council and the council members taking part in the conference were physically present together at a meeting.

- (j) Any resolution passed at a conference will be deemed to have been passed at a meeting of the council held on the day and at the time at which the conference was held.
- (k) A council member is deemed to continue to be present and form part of the quorum (see 4.4) until the council member make it known that they are ceasing to take part in that conference and obtains the express consent of the chairman of that conference to do so.

4.2 Extra-ordinary General Meeting

- (a) An Extraordinary General Meeting can be called by the President on the request in writing of not less than 25% of the total voting membership or ten (10) voting members, whichever is the lesser, and may be called at any time by order of the executive.
- (b) The notice in writing shall be given to the Secretary-General setting forth the business that is to be transacted.
- (c) The Extraordinary General Meeting shall be convened within three months from receiving the request to convene.
- (d) At least two months' notice shall be given of an Extraordinary General Meeting.
- (e) If the executive committee does not proceed to convene an Extraordinary General Meeting within three months after the date of the receipt of the written request, the members who requested for the Extraordinary General Meeting shall convene the Extraordinary General Meeting by giving notice of three weeks to voting members setting forth the business to be transacted and simultaneously posting the agenda on the Federation's notice board.
- (f) Notice of the meeting stating the date, time and place of the relevant meeting shall be sent by the Secretary-General to all voting members.
- (g) The particulars of the agenda shall be forwarded to the Council and Delegates at least three weeks in advance of the meeting.

- (h) Any member who wishes to place an item on the agenda of a General Meetings may do so provided he/ she gives notice to the Secretary-General one week before the meeting is due to be held.

4.3 Postponement

- (a) The executive committee may, no later than 72 hours before the time at which a general meeting is to be held in accordance with a general meeting notice.
 - (i) postpone that general meeting for a period not exceeding 90 days from the date set out in the general meeting notice; or
 - (ii) change the place at which that general meeting is to be held.
- (b) The executive committee must give written notice to all voting delegates.
- (c) Any notice postponing a general meeting or changing the place at which it is to be held must specify the place, date and time of that meeting which when held will be deemed to have been duly convened pursuant to the notice first convening it.

4.4 Quorum

- (a) No business will be transacted at any general meeting of the council unless a quorum of voting delegates is present at the time the meeting proceeds to business.
- (b) At least 50% of the total voting membership or five voting members, whichever is the lesser, present at General Meetings shall form a quorum.
- (c) For the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present, a person attending will be deemed to be a voting delegate.
- (d) In the event of there being no quorum at the commencement of a General Meeting, the meeting shall be adjourned for half an hour and should the number then present be insufficient to form a quorum, those present shall be considered a quorum, but they shall have no power to amend any part of the existing Constitution.

4.5 Chairman

- (a) The President will preside as chairman at every general meeting during that person's term of office.
- (b) Where a general meeting is held and:
 - (i) the President has not been elected:

- (ii) the President is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting or is unwilling to act;
- (iii) the President Elect has not been elected; or
- (iv) the President Elect is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting or is unwilling to act, the voting delegates present in person and entitled to vote will elect one of their number to chair the meeting.

4.6 Adjournment

- (a) The chairman may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present, and will, if directed by the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place.
- (b) No business will be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.
- (c) When a meeting is adjourned for 30 days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting must be given as in the case of an original meeting.
- (d) Except as provided by clause 4.6(c), it is unnecessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

4.7 Voting

- (a) The President, Secretary-General, Treasurer and each Delegate is entitled to vote at General Meetings
- (b) Apart from the those in clause 4.7(a), other executive committee members are not entitled to vote in General Meetings
- (c) A resolution put to the vote of the council at any general meeting will be decided on a show of hands unless, before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands, a poll is demanded by:
 - (i) the chairman, or
 - (ii) at least 3 voting delegates present in person.
- (d) Unless a poll is demanded, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried unanimously, by a majority or lost is conclusive.
- (e) An entry in the Federation records containing the minutes of the proceedings of the Federation regarding the result of a resolution is conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

- (f) A demand for a poll may be withdrawn.
- (g) If a poll is properly demanded, it will be taken as the chairman directs and the result of the poll will be a resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
- (h) A poll demanded for the election of a chairman or on a motion to adjourn a meeting will be taken immediately.
- (i) Voting by proxy shall not be allowed at all General Meetings.

4.8 Equality of votes

In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of that meeting does NOT have a casting vote.

4.9 Value

Subject to any rights or restrictions attached to any membership rights, every voting delegate present in person only has one vote, whether on a show of hands, a poll or otherwise.

4.10 Records

- (a) At every general meeting of the council, the Secretary General will make available the recorded minutes of all contributions made by voting delegates and the dates on which each of those contributions were made.
- (b) The register is conclusive evidence of the contributions of each voting delegate and the dates on which each of those contributions were made.

4.11 Unpaid amounts

A voting delegate is not entitled to vote at a general meeting unless all amounts presently payable by that voting delegate have been paid.

4.12 Objections

- (a) An objection may be raised to the qualification of a voter only at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered.
- (b) Any such objection will be referred to the chairman whose decision is final.
- (c) A vote not disallowed pursuant to such an objection is valid for all purposes.

5. EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

5.1 Identity

The Executive Committee of the Federation shall consist of the following office bearers:

- (a) President
- (b) President-Elect

The Executive Committee may, if a need so arises, co-opt existing members of the Society into the Executive Committee. Co-opted members of the EXCO have no voting rights in the Executive Committee.

5.3 Membership

The executive committee must be from voting member societies.

5.4 Appointment

- a) The Nomination Committee shall invite nominations from member societies for the offices of President-Elect, Secretary General, and Treasurer one year before the Annual General Meeting during which elections are held.
- b) From the names submitted, the Nomination Committee shall present one or more nominations for each of the above offices to the Executive Committee at least 6 months before the Annual General Meeting during which elections are held.
- c) The Executive Committee, after examination of nominations may, at its discretion, make its own nominations for each office in addition to the nominations previously notified.
- d) The nominations must be communicated to all members at least 3 months before the Annual General Meeting during which elections are held.
- e) Any individual member of a member society of good standing with the endorsement of the said society shall qualify for election.
- f) Each member country can only nominate one candidate for each position.
- g) The Nomination Committee may nominate a single slate, meaning one nominee for each office.
- h) Election to each office shall be decided by a simple majority of the eligible votes.

- i) If there is only one nominee for any office, election will be by acclamation.
- j) In the event that no Annual General Meeting is being held, election shall be by postal ballot and conducted by the Secretary-General.

5.5 Term

- (a) The Elected Officers include President-Elect, Secretary-General and Treasurer
- (b) The Elected Officers serve a single term
- (c) Executive committee members hold office until the next conclusion of the scientific meeting of the Federation after their appointment.
- (d) In the event of a mid-term vacancy on the Executive Committee, the Executive Committee shall have power to co-opt an individual of the member society of good standing, to fill this vacancy. The co-opted individual will hold office for the remainder of the term and will be eligible for re-election for one further term only.

5.6 Duration

Executive members, except the Editor of the Journal, cannot hold the same position for more than 1 term.

5.7 Responsibilities

- (b) Control, generate and disburse the funds of the Federation.
- (c) Keep proper accounting reports.
- (d) Represent the Federation.
- (e) Appoint the Federation's Managing Office, including to recruit and dismiss the Office-Managers and any other employees of the Federation and to determine their remuneration and working conditions.
- (f) Adopt internal organization rules to supplement this Constitution and to facilitate the operations, goals and mission of the Federation.
- (g) Perform all other tasks required for carrying out of the activities of the Federation and which are not reserved under this Constitution.
- (h) Appoint or dissolve the committees upon ratification at the Annual General Meeting.

- (i) The Executive Committee may delegate its powers as and when necessary to the Federation's Managing Office.
- (j) The Executive Committee determines the persons authorized to sign and their signatory power.

5.8 Scope of Powers

- (a) In the event of any question or matter pertaining to day-to-day administration which is not expressly provided for in this Constitution, the Executive Committee shall have power to use their own discretion.
- (b) The decision of the Executive Committee shall be final unless it is reversed at a General Meeting.

5.9 Duties of Office Bearers

(a) President

- (i) The President shall preside at General Meetings and meetings of the Executive Committee; shall be responsible for the overall running the Federation and shall be responsible in carrying out the aims of the Federation.
- (ii) The President shall succeed to his office from that of President-Elect.

(b) President-Elect

- (i) The President-Elect of the Federation shall work towards familiarizing himself or herself with the obligations and duties of the President.

(c) Secretary-General

- (i) The Secretary-General shall maintain the minutes of all Executive Committee meetings; provide notices of meetings; coordinate the activities of the Federation; carry out such other duties as the Executive Committee may from time to time designate.
- (ii) The Secretary General, or his or her designate, shall keep minutes of all General Meetings, which will be retained by the Federation after confirmation by the President; shall present a report at the Annual General Meeting. Copies of the minutes or extracts shall be sent to member societies who request them.

(d) Treasurer

- (i) The Treasurer shall also maintain proper record of all the monetary transactions. He/ she will present an annual budgetary report at the Annual General Meetings.
- (ii) The Treasurer shall keep all funds and collect and disburse all moneys on behalf of the Society and shall keep an account of all monetary transactions and shall be responsible for their correctness. He is authorised to expend up to $500 USD per month for petty expenses on behalf of the Society. He will not keep more than $500USD in the form of cash and money in excess of this will be deposited in a bank to be named by the Committee. Cheques, etc. for withdrawals from the bank will be signed by the Treasurer and either the President or the Secretary.

6.6 Declaration of Conflict of Interest

- (a) Any Executive committee member, officer, employee, or committee member having an interest in a contract or other transaction that is presented to the Executive committee or a committee for recommendation, authorization, approval, or ratification shall give a prompt, full and frank disclosure of his or her interest to the Executive committee prior to its acting on such contract or transaction.
- (b) The body to which such disclosure is made shall thereupon determine, by majority vote, whether the disclosure shows that a conflict of interest exists or can reasonably be construed to exist.

6.7 Conflicts

- (a) Subject to the Law, a council member who has a material personal interest in any matter that is being considered at a meeting of the council:

- (i) shall not vote on, nor use his or her personal influence on, nor participate (other than to present facts or to respond to questions) in the discussion or deliberations with respect to such contract, transaction, or determination.
- (ii) may not be counted in determining the existence of a quorum at any meeting where the contract, transaction, or determination is under discussion or is being voted upon.
- (iii) The minutes of the meeting shall reflect the disclosure made, the vote thereon and, where applicable, the abstention from voting and participation, and whether a quorum was present.

6.8 Committees

- (a) The executive committee may delegate any of their powers to a committee or committees consisting of a number of voting delegates (committee) as they think fit. Delegates may also request the formation of committees at General Meetings.
- (b) The number of individuals, duties and term of each ad hoc committee shall be included in the announcement of its formation
- (c) This decision must subsequently be ratified at the next Annual General Meeting.
- (d) A committee will exercise the powers delegated in accordance with any directions of the executive committee and a power so exercised will be deemed to have been exercised by the executive committee.
- (g) A committee may meet and adjourn as it thinks fit.
- (h) Questions arising at a meeting of a committee will be determined by a majority of votes of the members present and voting.

6.9 Nomination Committee

- (a) A Nomination committee shall be formed at the end of the Annual General Meeting in the year before elections are held.
- (b) This committee shall have the incoming Immediate Past President as Chairperson and one member appointed by the outgoing Executive Committee, together with one delegate elected at the Annual General Meeting.
- (c) In the event that a relevant Annual General Meeting is not held during the terms of office of the Executive Committee, elections to the Nomination Committee will be held at the next Annual General Meeting.
- (d) The President is not eligible to directly appoint any members of the Nomination Committee, serve on the Nomination committee, give the Nomination

Committee instructions, or take part in the Nomination Committee's deliberations.

- (e) A member of the Nomination Committee who is nominated for President-Elect, Secretary-General, Treasurer or Auditors should resign from the Nomination Committee immediately.

6.10 Alternate delegates

- (a) A delegate may, with the approval of the council, appoint a person to be an alternate delegate in the appointer's place during such period as that appointer thinks fit.
- (b) An alternate delegate is entitled to notice of meetings of the council and, if the appointer is not present at such a meeting, is entitled to attend and vote in the appointer's stead and to exercise all of the powers and rights of a delegate.
- (c) The appointment of an alternate delegate may be terminated at any time by the appointer notwithstanding that the period of the appointment of the alternate delegate has not expired, and terminates in any event if the appointer is removed from or vacates office as a delegate.
- (d) An appointment, or the termination of an appointment, of an alternate delegate is made by notice signed by the delegate who makes or made the appointment and served on the Federation.

7. GENERAL PROVISIONS

7.1 Records

- (a) The executive committee will determine whether and to what extent, at what time and places and under what conditions, the accounting records and other documents of the Federation or any of them will be open to the inspection of members other than executive committee.
- (b) A member other than an executive committee member does not have the right to inspect any document of the Federation except as provided by law or authorised by the executive committee or by the Federation in general meeting.

7.2 Audit

- (a) Unless the provisions of the Law enable the voting delegates to otherwise agree, the accounts of the Federation will be audited once at least in every 3 years.
- (b) Auditors of the Federation will be appointed and their continuing appointment will be renewed at each annual general meeting by majority vote and may resign or be removed and their remuneration, rights and duties will be regulated in accordance with the provisions of the Law.

- (c) A person must not be appointed or act as auditor of the Federation if that person is not a qualified auditor or has been or is disqualified under the provisions of the Law.
- (d) Every account of the Federation when audited and approved by a general meeting will be conclusive except as regards any error discovered in that account within 3 months next after the approval of that account.

7.3 Indemnity

- (a) To the extent permitted by law, the Federation may indemnify each Executive committee member against any liability incurred by the officer in or arising out of the conduct of the business of the Federation or in or arising out of the discharge of the duties of the executive committee member.
- (b) In any case where the executive committee considers it appropriate the Federation may execute a documentary indemnity in any form in favour of any executive committee member.
- (c) Where the executive committee considers it appropriate to do so, the Federation may, to the relevant extent, pay amounts by way of premium in respect of any contract effecting insurance on behalf of or in respect of an officer against liability incurred by the officer in or arising out of the conduct of the business of the Federation or in or arising out of the discharge of the duties of the officer.
- (d) In this clause 7.3:
 - (i) officer includes an executive committee member or official delegate.
 - (ii) duties of the officer include, in any particular case where the executive committee considers it appropriate, duties arising by reason of the appointment, nomination or secondment in any capacity of an officer by the Federation.
 - (i) liability means all costs, charges, losses, damages, expenses, penalties and liabilities of any kind including, in particular, legal costs incurred in defending any proceedings (whether criminal, civil, administrative or judicial) or appearing before any court, tribunal, government authority or other body.

7.4 Notices

- (a) A notice may be given by the Federation to:
 - (i) any member by:
 - (A) personal service; or

- (B) sending it by post to the address shown in the Register of Members or to the address supplied by that member to the Federation for delivery of notices; or
 - (C) Other electronic means.
- (b) Where a notice is sent by post, service of the notice will be deemed to be effected by properly addressing, prepaying and posting a letter containing the notice, and to have been effected:
 - (i) in the case of a notice of meeting, on the day after the date of its posting; and
 - (ii) in any other case, at the time at which the letter would be delivered in the ordinary course of post.

7.5 Alteration of the Constitution

- (a) The Constitution of the Federation may be altered, rescinded or added to by a Special Resolution of the Federation.
- (b) Amendments to this Constitution may be initiated by petition of at least 10 per cent of the Council.
- (c) The Secretary shall forward a copy of such proposals to every delegate of member societies who is eligible to vote.
- (d) Proposed amendments shall be submitted for ratification by a two-thirds majority of those present at an Annual General Meeting. Following this, the entire Council shall be notified by mail of the action.
- (e) No change in the constitution is allowed without the approval of the relevant authorities in the country of registration.

7.6 Interpretation

- (a) In the event of any question or matter pertaining to day-to-day administration which is not expressly provided for in this Constitution, the Executive Committee shall have power to use their own discretion. The decision of the Executive Committee shall be final unless it is reversed at a General Meeting

7.7 Dispute Resolution

- (a) In the event of any dispute arising amongst members, they shall attempt to resolve the matter at an Extraordinary General Meeting in accordance with this Constitution.

- (b) Should the members fail to resolve the matter, any dispute arising out of or in connection with this Constitution may first be addressed by mediation or arbitration prior to resorting to a court of law.

7.8 Prohibitions

- (a) Gambling of any kind, excluding the promotion or conduct of a private lottery which has been permitted under the Private Lotteries Act Cap 250, is forbidden on the Federations premises. The introduction of materials for gambling or drug taking and of bad characters into the premises is prohibited.
